

Shared Prosperity Dignified Life

Lecturer

Mr. Salim Araji | Economic Affairs Officer. ESCWA, Beirut, Lebanon

Salim Araji is an Economist at the UN-Economic and Social Commission for western Asia (ESCWA). His research agenda at ESCWA is focused on Employment creation, private sector development and economic diversification. His current area of focus is on the future of work in the Arab region. He has multiple academic publications on economic growth, macroeconomics and the macroeconomic effect of natural resource revenues. He is an associate research fellow at the Economic Research Forum (ERF). He holds a Ph.D. in economics from the University of Wisconsin with special interest in macroeconomics, economic development and growth. He also has an MBA in finance and a bachelor's degree in finance.

Discussant

Mr. Ali Fakih | Associate professor at LAU, Beirut, Lebanon

Ali Fakih is an Associate Professor and the Associate Chair of the Department of Economics at the Lebanese American University. He is also a Fellow at the Economic Research Forum (ERF), IZA Institute of Labor Economics, Centre for Interdisciplinary Research and Analysis of Organizations (CIRANO), and Global Labor Organization (GLO). He received his PhD in Economics in 2011 from HEC Montréal, the business school affiliated with l'Université de Montréal. His research interests include Labor Economics, Development Economics, Econometrics, Finance-Growth Nexus, Political Transformations, MENA Economies. His articles have appeared in international journals such as Journal of Econometrics, Annals of Public and Cooperative Economics, Defence and Peace Economics, Tourism Economics, Journal of Agricultural Economics, International Journal of Manpower, Journal of Industrial Relations, Social Indicators Research, and International Migration among others.