

Name: Khaled Mahmoud Wali
Director for ICT Development -Arab League

Degree: Postgraduate Certificate in Communication Management

Year: 2005-2007

University: Coventry Business School, United Kingdom

Degree: Doctor of Philosophy

Year: 1997-2000

University: University College of London, United Kingdom

Specialization: Privatization of Textile Industry in Egypt

- With more than twenty years of experience in the area of implementing high-level trade and environment and telecommunication and information technology agreements in the Arab region. Mr. Wali is currently the Head of the ICT Development in the Arab League in Cairo. Over the course of his career, he has gathered a diverse portfolio of professional experiences, working with multi-lateral organizations in the Arab world which have led him to become a regional expert in his areas of specialization. He is managing the following duties as the Technical Secretariat for the permanent Arab committee for communication and information technology and the Technical Secretariat for the permanent Arab committee for post and the Technical secretariat for the executive committee and Arab council for the ministers responsible for communication and information technology. Moreover ,providing assistance to Arab countries on the country's capital level to enhance their cooperation with the International Telecommunication Union and Universal Postal Union.