

Eng. Mohamed BEN AMOR
Secretary General of the Arab Information and Communication Technologies
Organization, “AICTO”

Mr. Ben Amor holds a Master diploma in International Project Management from the "Conservatoire National d'Arts et des Métiers", CNAM - Paris (France), and a Diploma of Engineer from the Naval Academy, AN (Tunisia).

Mr. BEN AMOR has over 25 years of experience, specializing in the use and evolution of information and communication technologies for development, as well as in analytical, policy, management and coordination functions at national, regional and International level.

Mr. Ben Amor, before being elected SG of AICTO in 2015, has occupied between 2011- 2015 the post of Special Advisor to the Minister of Industry and Technologies, to the Minister of Information and Communication Technologies and to the Minister of Higher Education Scientific Research and ICT. He was General Director of the Tunisian Telecommunications Research and Studies Center (2009 – 2010).

Mr Ben Amor worked as an expert for many international institutions (World Bank, African Development Bank, UN Economic Commission for Western Asia ESCWA, etc.) and in this capacity has led several international projects.